MASS INTENTION NOTICE

Until further notice, due to pastoral scheduling and the requirements of Canon 534 §1, which requires the pastor to offer a Mass for the people each Sunday, some Mass times may need to be adjusted.

Please be assured that your Mass intention will still be celebrated during the same weekend requested. The time and, if necessary, the location may change.

A Mass intention is an opportunity to unite a particular intention with the prayer of the whole Church. When your intention is offered at Mass, our parish community joins you in prayer, and your intention is entrusted to the Communion of Saints. Your intention remains honored even if the Mass time or location changes.

If your Mass time or location changes, the parish office will (attempt to) contact you directly. There is no need to call the office to confirm your Mass time.

We sincerely appreciate your patience, understanding, and grace as we make these necessary adjustments. Thank you for entrusting your intentions to our parish prayers.

COMMENTS BY DEACON DALE BROWN

In light of the great missionary mandate from Christ, being a disciple of Christ is never enough. One must become an apostle! What does this mean? A disciple of Christ is a person who has experienced the love of Christ and accepts his teachings. Unfortunately, often a disciple is one by happenstance and not by intention. Christ did not simply wish for us to be passive receivers of the Good News. After he called the disciples, he then sent them out on a mission. This being sent out is the moment they became “apostolic.”

This month, we need more apostles. Christ needs us to be his hands and his feet, his voice and his heart. The faith we have received now must be shared without fear. This world is suffering a deep darkness. Only the light of Christ, shining through his everyday apostles, will scatter the darkness and cause a new day to dawn!

The 100th anniversary of World Mission Sunday this year reminds us that missionary commitment is not optional. It flows from our baptismal identity. This year's theme chosen by Pope Leo XIV is “One in Christ, united in mission.”

How, then, shall we respond to this World Mission Month? We can begin by deepening our prayer for missionaries and the peoples they serve. We can support the World Mission Sunday collection generously, knowing that these funds sustain the Church in places too young, too poor, or too persecuted to stand on their own. We can share the Good News in our own spheres of life — in our families, workplaces, and parishes.

Ultimately, the parable of the wicked tenants is not only a warning but an invitation. It reveals a God who refuses to abandon us to our sin and failure. He sent the prophets. He sent His Son. Now, he sends us.

St. Teresa of Avila,
Francois Gerard

News You Can Use—Do you need a smoke alarm? “Get Alarmed, TN!” is a grant-funded fire safety education and smoke alarm installation program administered by State Fire Marshal's Office (SFMO). The program distributes fire safety education and 10-year sealed battery smoke alarms to participating fire departments. The fire departments then deliver the education and install smoke alarms in homes across the state.

One More Thing—To see if you meet the requirements to receive a free smoke alarm, visit: <https://www.tn.gov/commerce/fire/prevention-education-and-outreach/get-alarmed-tn.html> and click the link REQUEST A FREE SMOKE ALARM.

Upcoming Feast Days & Special Days—

Thurs., Oct. 15 — FEAST DAY of St. Teresa of Jesus, Doctor of the Church and mystic. Also known as St. Teresa of Avila, she entered the Carmelites at the age of 20. As her prayer life deepened she began to experience ecstasies and visions. She founded 17 convents throughout Spain, authored books and profound spiritual writings. She died in 1582 and is the patron saint of Spain.

Sat., Oct. 17 — FEAST DAY of St. Ignatius of Antioch, Bishop and Martyr. He became the third bishop of Antioch and served for 40 years. Around 107, a persecution of Christians by the Romans ensued. Emperor Trajan condemned Ignatius to death because he refused to offer a sacrifice to the Roman gods. He is one of three Apostolic Fathers (one having direct ties to the Apostles and who left writings). He is the patron saint of the Church of Northern Africa and the Eastern Mediterranean. He is invoked against throat diseases.

Comuníquese con la oficina parroquial para solicitar una intención de Misa.

AVISO SOBRE LAS INTENCIONES DE MISA

Hasta nuevo aviso, debido a la programación pastoral y a lo dispuesto en el Canon 534 §1 —que exige al párroco celebrar una Misa por el pueblo cada domingo—, es posible que sea necesario ajustar algunos horarios de Misa.

Tenga la seguridad de que su intención de Misa se celebrará durante el mismo fin de semana solicitado. Lo que podría cambiar es el horario y, de ser necesario, el lugar de celebración.

Una intención de Misa es una oportunidad para unir una intención particular a la oración de toda la Iglesia. Cuando su intención se presenta en la Misa, nuestra comunidad parroquial se une a usted en oración y su intención se encomienda a la Comunión de los Santos. Su intención sigue siendo honrada aunque cambie el horario o el lugar de la Misa.

Si se modifica el horario o el lugar de su Misa, la oficina parroquial intentará ponerse en contacto directamente con usted. No es necesario llamar a la oficina para confirmar el horario de la Misa.

Agradecemos sinceramente su paciencia, comprensión y buena disposición al realizar estos ajustes necesarios. Gracias por encomendar sus intenciones a las oraciones de nuestra parroquia.

ORANDO CON OTROS

Rosario y Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia: Todos los domingos a las 3:00 p. m., en la biblioteca o sala de conferencias de la parroquia.

Vida en el Espíritu: El segundo y cuarto miércoles de cada mes a las 6:00 p. m., en la Sala Nuestra Señora de Fátima. Para más información, comuníquese con Sharon al correo sacreiter@gmail.com.

Grupo de oración para hombres: El primer y tercer jueves de cada mes, de 7:30 a. m. a 8:20 a. m., en el Salón de los Caballeros (Knights Hall). Para más información, llame al 731-487-2008.

COMENTARIOS DE DEACON DALE BROWN

A la luz del gran mandato misionero de Cristo, ser discípulo de Cristo nunca es suficiente. ¡Es preciso convertirse en apóstol! ¿Qué significa esto? Un discípulo de Cristo es una persona que ha experimentado el amor de Cristo y acepta sus enseñanzas. Lamentablemente, a menudo se es discípulo por casualidad y no por intención. Cristo no deseaba simplemente que fuéramos receptores pasivos de la Buena Nueva. Después de llamar a los discípulos, los envió a la misión. Ese envío fue el momento en que se volvieron «apostólicos».

Este mes necesitamos más apóstoles. Cristo necesita que seamos sus manos y sus pies, su voz y su corazón. La fe que hemos recibido debe compartirse ahora sin temor. Este mundo sufre una profunda oscuridad. ¡Solo la luz de Cristo, brillando a través de sus apóstoles cotidianos, disipará las tinieblas y hará despuntar un nuevo día!

St. Teresa de Avila

El centenario de la Jornada Mundial de las Misiones que celebramos este año nos recuerda que el compromiso misionero no es opcional; brota de nuestra identidad bautismal. El lema elegido para este año es: «Uno en Cristo, unidos en la misión».

¿Cómo responderemos, entonces, a este Mes Mundial de las Misiones? Podemos comenzar profundizando en nuestra oración por los misioneros y por los pueblos a los que sirven. Podemos apoyar generosamente la colecta de la Jornada Mundial de las Misiones, sabiendo que estos fondos sostienen a la Iglesia en lugares que son demasiado jóvenes, pobres o perseguidos para valerse por sí mismos. Podemos compartir la Buena Nueva en nuestros propios ámbitos de vida: en nuestras familias, lugares de trabajo y parroquias.

En última instancia, la parábola de los viñadores homicidas no es solo una advertencia, sino también una invitación. Nos revela a un Dios que se niega a abandonarnos a nuestro pecado y a nuestro fracaso. Él envió a los profetas. Envío a su Hijo. Ahora, nos envía a nosotros.
